Rev Jeff's Easter Message

It is said that Easter Day and the resurrection of Christ is either the most significant event in history or else the cruellest hoax.

But how do we know which of these it is, and writers such as C S Lewis would say there are no in-between answers? When the film "Watership Down" was on general release, a butcher, who sold dead rabbits, advertised,

"You've read the book and seen the film, now eat the cast!"

So, to return to the question of how do we know which of the two proposals is true, Scripture invites us to meet, rather than eat the "star"- although Jesus did speak of eating his flesh in Holy Communion. We are told that the Risen Christ stands at the door of our hearts and knocks; we have the choice to let Him in or keep Him shut out of our lives. We need to choose in much the same way that the mob on Good Friday did; are we for Him or against Him?
